PREFACE

The history of a county is not complete without the names of the people who have lived in it. One type of record which contributes in a singular way to knowledge of past citizens is that of cemeteries in the area. Unfortunately, markers of stone, however lovingly erected, do not stand forever. The forces of nature and man have taken their toll, erasing, in some instances, the only existing record of a life once spent.

In an effort to preserve information still obtainable from the old cemeteries and to make it readily available to researchers, some members of Lewis Boyer Chapter NSDAR have compiled this record of burials in Shelby County, Ohio. Various sources of information were utilized, principally cemetery custodians' records, church records, mortuary records and tombstone inscriptions. Interment records, where available, were copied as more data is provided therein than can be obtained from tombstones. Additionally, such records include data on those buried in unmarked graves. Church records have been used in conjunction with tombstone inscriptions for the records of some church cemeteries.

Tombstone inscriptions provide the only available source of information for the majority of the small, old, often abandoned, cemeteries of the county. A great deal of effort has been expended in locating these plots, a few of which for one reason or another could not be found, and in carefully copying inscriptions from the tombstones remaining therein. A surprising number of inscriptions are in German or French, which have been translated for this record. All too many grave markers have disappeared, deteriorated or been vandalized for any record compiled today to be considered a complete one. Inscriptions copied previously by various researchers have provided some now missing data, which are included. Without doubt, many of the early graves were never marked with tombstones.

Despite all efforts to ensure as complete and accurate a collection as possible, the compilers are painfully aware that this record is not a perfect one. Record keeping, as all researchers have learned, has never been a precise art. Errors of spelling and of omission, particularly in older records, although regrettable, must be expected.

We are indebted to so many individuals for their help in providing, or helping us collect, material for this book that space does not permit each to be mentioned. Their gracious assistance is sincerely appreciated. Special recognition must be extended to the late Paul A. Sherman who, during the 1930's, researched the history of many of Shelby County's cemeteries and recorded data from some of the older tombstones. A number of these markers are now missing. Our profound thanks go to Mr. Roy E. Lacy and Mrs. Anita Short for generously permitting us to use their records of tombstone readings, to Mr. Joseph B. Cook and Mr. William E. Salm for providing early mortuary records; to Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Shaffer for allowing the use of early Infirmary records; to numerous farm residents for kindly leading us to tiny, obscure family burial plots on their properties; to Mrs. Sylvia Zwiebel for her valuable, faithful assistance in proofreading hundreds of pages of text; and to DAR members and friends for their labors and continuing moral support.

Wesley Chapel (Orange Twp)

Wesley Chapel Cemetery (Orange Township) is located on Brown Road in Shelby County, about 500 feet from the Shelby-Miami County line. Burials here include many residents from both Shelby and Miami Counties. The cemetery was apparently started in the 1820's and in 1840 the Wesley Chapel M. E. Church was built at this location but is no longer standing. Many grave markers have been damaged or removed and this composite of tombstone readings, made at various times by interested individuals, is presented as the most complete record obtainable.

One of the best known persons buried here is Lewis Boyer, a Revolutionary War Soldier, for whom the Lewis Boyer Chapter, NSDAR, Sidney, Ohio, was named. He was a respected leader in community and church affairs and one of the founding members of the congregation which built the Wesley Chapel M. E. Church.

Sacred to the meory of

LEWIS BOYER

who died Sept. 19, 1843,

aged 87 yrs:

He was a soldier of the American revolution, and by the side of the great Washington fought many a hard battle for his Country's ind-ependence, served as a life guard to the Commander in Chief during the war, and was honorably Discharged Dec. 10, 1783 by special certificate signed by Gen. Washington.

Here Boyer lies, who Britain's arms withstood
Nor for his own, but for his country's good.
The victor oft on famed Columbia's fields
To death the aged hero yields.

Old Loramie Valley

In Dinsmore Township, one and one-half miles south of Botkins, on the east side of Co. Rd 25-A. Here are buried some of the earliest settlers of the Botkins area. Reportedly the cemetery was laid out on the site of the abandoned village of Northumberland. New Loramie Valley Cemetery lies about one-third mile to the north.

St. Lawrence

Cemetery is located in Dinsmore Township three miles east of Botkins on the south side of Botkins Road. Across the road to the north is the St. Lawrence Roman Catholic Church, referred to as the Rhine Church because the local area is known as Rhine. A church was first constructed here in 1858, two years after the congregation formed, and was used until 1894 when a new church was erected. Presumably the St. Lawrence Church Cemetery was started about 1858. It is still in use.

Monument in center of cemetery:

Wyatt

Various attempts to find this old family burial ground have been unsuccessful. It is believed to be in the southwest quarter of Section 17, Loramie Township, about midway between the intersection of Russia-Versailles Road (from Russia) and Stillwater Road. According to neighboring residents, the plat has been plowed over and the markers used in concrete projects. These inscriptions were found in records at the Ohio State Library:

Dorsey

Dorsey Cemetery is located in the southeast corner of Green Township, on the west side of Tawawa-Maplewood Road. It is situated behind a wooded area and entrance is by a lane just north of the woods. Next to the burial ground is a small lot where the log structured Salem M. E. Church once stood. The Charity Chapel M. E. and Charity Chapel Christian Churches were successively erected on the east side of Tawawa-Maplewood Road, across from the cemetery, on land which once belonged to Silas Dorsey. No building remains at the site.

Pleasant Hill

In Jackson Township, one mile east of Jackson Center at the intersection of SR-274 and Morris-Rose Road, on the north side of SR-274. The Pleasant Hill Methodist Episcopal congregation organized in 1838 and built a church on the north side of the cemetery in 1842. This structure was replaced with a frame building which was taken down in 1882 when the church relocated in Jackson Center. Earliest burials found were in 1842. Cemetery is no longer in use.

Seventh Day Baptist

Located 1/4 mile west of Jackson Center on SR-274. Cemetery was started about 1840, the year the Seventh Day Baptist congregation organized. In 1842 a hewed log church was built near the cemetery, which was replaced by a frame building in 1859. This was taken down in 1881 and a new church built in Jackson Center. Early burials were members of the Seventh Day Baptist congregation but not all in recent years were necessarily of this faith. After the cemetery was severely damaged by vandals, a monument dealer was engaged to reset the tombstones. Several of the older flat type of stones were so deeply set in concrete that portions of the inscriptions are obliterated.

Tawawa U. B.

Small denominational cemetery once located in Perry Township about one and one-half miles southeast of Pasco on State Route 29. It was used by the congregation of the Tawawa U. B. Church which reportedly stood at this site from 1863 to about 1900. No trace of the graveyard remains. Tombstones were moved into Cedar Point Cemetery and are included in that record, except for the following which was not found:

Marrs, James, 1809 - 1863.

Wagoner

Small family graveyard in Perry Township, believed to be located about one-half mile south of the Village of Pasco. Efforts to find the plat have not been successful.

Reformed Lutheran

Presumably this was a small congregational cemetery. Although it could not be found, it is believed to be located in Perry Township, southwest of the intersection of Gearhart and Frazier-Guy Roads.

Bretches, Jennie P., d June 16, 1893, 15y 10m 23d.

(Found nearby, small stone, name & epitaph only:)

Pearl - A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in his wisdom has recalled
The boon his love had given
And though the body slumbers now
The soul is safe in Heaven.

(Legend exists that the cemetery was named for this child who accidentally burned to death.)

St. Jacob Lutheran (Old Swanders)

On west side of County Road 25-A, one mile south of Anna, in Franklin Township. Most names and inscriptions are written in German. Cemetery was extensively damaged by a tornado in 1965 and tombstones that could be salvaged were reset in a group at the center of the plat. The present St. Jacob Lutheran Church is located in Anna, Ohio and burials are made in Pearl Cemetery.

A bronze plaque at the front of the cemetery reads:

The Site Of
The
St. Jacob
Lutheran Church and Cemetery

Angel Street

Officially listed at the Shelby County Courthouse as Angel Street Cemetery, this plat has also been referred to in other records as the Dunkard, German Baptist, Loramie or Loramie Chapel Cemetery. It is situated in Cynthian Township, on the west side of Cecil-Wolke Road, between its intersections with State Route 47 and Wright-Moyer Road. Earliest burial was about 1866. Reportedly, a church once stood at this site.

Hodge

Hodge Cemetery was within the boundary of Shelby County until 1883 when a change in the Logan-Shelby County line placed it just inside Logan County. It is located on the west side of Logan County Road 23 between Meranda and Maplewood Roads. However, most inscriptions are on the west side of the stones, indicating the original entrance was from the west where Shelby County is situated.

Carey

Cemetery is located in Section 29 of Turtle Creek Township, on the east side of the Hardin-Wapakoneta Road about 1/4 mile north of Hardin. It is completely overgrown and about half of the tombstones are no longer upright. Many are the large pillar type of the 1870's and 1800's, which were too heavy and too deeply embedded to be moved to obtain inscriptions on all sides. Cemetery is fenced, with a large gate on the north side. Inscriptions were taken October 1971 by Lois Ann Baker and Anita Short. Others are added from earlier readings by Paul A. Sherman and from Ohio State Library records. There probably are other tombstones in this graveyard which are completely buried in the earth.

Carey

Reportedly there are five Revolutionary War Soldiers buried in Carey Cemetery. Only one tombstone, that of Joshua Stephens, could be found. The others are: Ezra Carey, Zachariah Cecil, Lieut. James Connor and the Rev. William A. Davis.

Ezra Carey was born in Morris Co, New Jersey in 1735 and died in 1828.

Zachariah Cecil was born in Maryland in 1758 and died Aug 20, 1823.

James Cannon was born in Ireland in 1756 and died in 1825.

No dates are known for the Rev. William A. Davis.

Colonel John Hardin, for whom the village of Hardin was named, was never a resident of the area but was killed here by Indians while on a peace mission in 1792. His place of burial is said to be under the intersection of State Route 47 and Hardin-Wapakoneta Road.

Inscription on a marker at the intersection of State Route 47 and Hardin-Wapakoneta Road in the village of Hardin:

Hardin
Named for Col. John Hardin
Killed by the Indians here in 1792
Platted 1816 County Seat
of Shelby County 1819
Shawnees camped here Oct. 1832
Last trek from Ohio

Old Friedens Gemeinde

This cemetery cannot be found although its location is said to be in the northwest corner of the intersection of Lock-Two and Kettlerville-Botkins Roads (southwest corner of Section 3) in Van Buren Township. A German Lutheran Church, known as the Friedens Gemeinde, once stood here. Reportedly the church was moved approximately one and one-half miles northeast and many of those buried here were also transferred. In the 1930's only two tombstones were still visible, which were the following:

Johnston, Lydia M., wife of Robert, d Feb 25, 1874, 32y.

Frank, Elizabeth J., wife of George, d June 27, 1870, 24y.

New Friedens Gemeinde

Located in Van Buren Township about one-half mile east of the intersection of Botkins and Kettlerville-Botkins Roads. Cemetery, which is fenced and well kept, is about 100 feet off the south side of Botkins Road. A German Lutheran Church, called the Friedens Gemeinde, was attended here from about 1888 until 1910. Most inscriptions are in German.

Furrow

In the northeast quarter of Section 10 of McLean Township, approximately one-half mile north of the town of Fort Loramie. This very small plat which contains only four markers is located at the site of General Anthony Wayne's Fort Loramie, erected in 1794. The mission and store of Pierre Loramie had earlier been situated in the vicinity of the cemetery site.

Old St. Michael's

Large inactive cemetery behind St. Michael's Catholic Church on the north side of State Route 362 at the northern limits of Fort Loramie in McLean Township. Earliest burials apparently occurred in the 1840's. About one-fourth of the tombstones are for infants or small children; a number of these small markers are weathered and illegible. The large attractive brick church was built in 1881.

Inscription, in German, from large monument at northern edge of cemetery: (translation)

Here Rests in God
The Very Reverend Father William V. Bigot
1838 - 1903
Father of this Congregation
1874 - 1903
Under his pastorate was this church built.

Black

Also known as the Lemoine Cemetery, this small plat is located east of Russia in Loramie Township, approximately one-fourth mile west of Rangeline Road near the railroad. It is accessible by a lane along the south side of the railroad tracks. Cemetery belonged to a German Reformed Church located about one-fourth mile to the west and across the tracks. The frame building has been converted into a dwelling.

Calvary

This Catholic cemetery, which has long ceased to exist, was located in east Sidney on the east side of South Brooklyn Avenue, about one-fourth mile south of the intersection of Court Street (S.R. 47) and South Brooklyn Avenue. Across the street, between South Brooklyn Avenue and the Miami River, was an earlier graveyard referred to as the Old Catholic Cemetery, which is marked by a bronze plaque:

CALVARY CEMETERY
IN MEMORIAM
DONATED BY
CATHERINE M. DRUMMOND

In 1915 and 1916 Calvary and Old Catholic Cemeteries were vacated and bodies were transferred to the southern portion of Graceland, now sections B and C. The following is a reconstructed record, however complete it may be, of burials originally made in Calvary and later removed to Graceland. Information was gathered primarily from mortuary records, tombstone inscriptions and newspaper items. After 1916 burials made in the Catholic sections are included in Graceland's Record of Interments.

Infirmary (County Home)

This cemetery is actually comprised of three separate plats on the farm of the Shelby County Home situated on Fair Road in the extreme southwest corner of Clinton Township. Burials date from the establishment of the Infirmary in 1866. Graves, except in very recent years, have not been marked. This record was compiled from the Infirmary's Cemetery Record, Record of Inmates, and various other authentic sources. It includes persons, both Infirmary residents and transients, known to be buried in the cemetery, Infirmary residents whose place of burial was not recorded and who are presumed to be buried here, and others who died while residents of the Infirmary and are known to be buried elsewhere.

A new Shelby County Home was constructed several years ago on the same property, replacing the original century-old building, and is known as Fair Haven.

A bronze plaque stands in the cemetery at the intersection of Fair and Schenk Roads:

This Memorial Erected In Everlasting
Remembrance of the Burials Present &
Future -- Men & Women -- Known &
Unknown In These Hallowed Grounds.

CEMETERIES IN SHELBY COUNTY, OHIO

Presented here are some additional data and comments extracted from the collections of Paul A. Sherman.

Angel Street

The Angel Street Cemetery was formerly the churchyard of the Angel Street Church and is located on the Angel Street Road, one and one half miles east of Oran. Cemetery in fair condition. The Dunkard Faith was represented here. The Church was moved to Oran several years ago and remodeled into a community house. Of a once prosperous Dunkard Community about two families remain and these worship in Sidney.

Anna M. E.

At the northern limits of Anna Village is the old burial ground of the Anna M. E. Church. In fair condition. John Munch was regarded as being the earliest settler of Dinsmore Twp. coming here in 1832. Hector Lemmon served with distinction in the War of 1812. One year after his death in 1851 his family received a grant of 160 acres of land in Dinsmore Twp. as a reward for his services.

Barnett

Evidences of a large number of interments in this cemetery, but very few markers, indicating perhaps the poverty of the earlier settlers of this area. These people also represent the early settlement of Rumley. Emma Artis, who died October 28, 1854 from ill-treatment at the hands of her step-father, Alfred Artis, is buried here in an unmarked grave. The elder Artis was convicted and tried for murder in the first degree and was hung in the southwest corner of the present Shelby County Court Yard by Sheriff Jimmie Dryden Feb. 23rd, 1855. Artis was refused burial in the graveyard by the hundred or more Negro families who considered him a bad man and rejoiced at his passing. He was buried in the corner of his farm which was later sold to a colored man by the name of George Redman. It has passed into many hands since and legend has it that some sort of curse of bad luck descends upon the owner. Some twenty years ago the Anna-Rumley Road was extended to the St. Marys Pike, the ditch of the same road passing over his grave. Person vouching for the existance of the grave in the cemetery of the daughter are Christopher Kelly, a well-known realtor of Sidney, and Elmer Peters, sole survivor of the defunct Rumley, who claims he was a great nephew of Artis. Cemetery is in bad condition.

Bethel

Located approximately one half mile from the southwestern corner of the McPherson Reservation. A church once stood here. Cemetery in bad condition with many stones down. The McCormick, Hawver, Noggle, Lefever families were the earliest settlers of this vicinity, James McCormick being the first to come in 1831.

Brookside

In good condition, newest part used by Methodist Episcopal Church of Hardin. Many pioneers buried here.

Calvary - see Graceland

Carey

Jane Carey was the first one to be buried here in 1814. The Careys, Wilsons and Davenports are early settlers of the Hardin area. There is a grave of a Revolutionary War Veteran in this cemetery, a marker being furnished, no name being visible, the wrought iron emblem however appearing on the grave. There are supposed to be four Revolutionary heroes buried in Hardin cemeteries of which there are two markers. They are: Lieut. James Connor, Zachariah Cecil, Rev. Wm. A. Davis and Joshua Stephen. Legend has it that Col. John Hardin, murdered by the Indians lies buried under the intersection of State Route 47 and the North-South road of Hardin. No other information as to interment is available. Cemetery in unkept condition, full of woodchuck holes.

Cecil

From appearances many graves have been removed from this cemetery. Some of the tombstones are being used around the farm buildings. It is said that many people are buried here who worked on the Miami and Erie Canal, in fact the cemetery is located near the canal. Cemetery is in bad condition.

Cedar Point

Laid out and platted in 1885, one of the county's best kept cemeteries. Judge David and Sally Henry came to Perry Township, Shelby County in 1814, and were the parents of the first white twins to be born in Shelby County. They entered land in 1814 on the site where this cemetery is located. Judge Henry had charge of the sale of lots in Sidney after that town was platted in 1820. The village was formerly called Cedar Point, its name being changed to Pasco P. O. in 1894. Thos. Wilkinson, a soldier of the Revolution is buried here.

Coles Chapel

Condition fair. Coles Chapel on site, unused. Burials made at Brookside Cemetery, Hardin. Names of Roman, Latimer, Burton and Cole prominent in present day Turtle Creek Twp. and vicinity. The present Fosnight family resides in Van Buren Twp. on the north side of Loramie Reservoir.

Collins

This is one of the burial places of the Rumley area, the now defunct and once prosperous village inhabited almost entirely by Negroes. Samuel McColgan was one of a colony of Negroes landing in Sidney in 1854, liberated by will of one Col. McColgan of Kentucky. He, like many others, took his master's name. Some here came in Shelby County in 1846 as members of the Randolph colony and others in 1860 as representatives of the Emlen colony of Mercer County. Joel W. Goings, buried here, was the first storekeeper and built the first brick house in Rumley in 1841. He also operated a grist mill under the firm name of Spray and Goings. The Collins family were carpenters and builders. Jennie Day Peters was the first wife of Elmer Peters, sole survivor of Rumley, which will be just one hundred hears old in 1937. The first settlers were Negroes and came here in 1837, presumably by the "underground railways," of which there were two in Shelby County.

Cowan

Dr. Wilson V. Cowan was a practicing physician in Hardin in 1856. He served as a member of the Ohio Legislature for several years and during the Civil War served with the 34th Ohio Zouaves as a surgeon. The Kennards came to Turtle Creek Twp. near Hardin in 1812. Cemetery in very bad condition.

Cuba

Just how the cemetery became known by its present name is not known. A school house once stood in the vicinity and was known as the Cuba school. A church formerly stood on the southernmost part of the plat and was known as the Whitefeather Christian Church. It was founded in 1839 by Elder Joseph Warbington and others who met at the home of Samuel Harshbarger. They met at the home of various members till 1855 when the first building was built, the land being donated by Samuel Harshbarger. The building was torn down in 1882 and in the same year a more commodious building was erected on the Sidney-St. Marys road, at the southwest corner of its intersection with the Hoying Pike. This building was torn down in 1902.

Dingmansburg - see Graceland

Dinsmore Township

The Becks and Gallimores were early pioneers in this locality. Very few interments in this cemetery.

Dorsey

This cemetery, just across the road from the Charity Chapel Christian Church, is fenced in, the grass mowed by an impounded ram and but few stones are down. John Dorsey came to southeastern Green Township in 1816. He served during the War of 1812 and died 11-11-1867. His wife was Catherine Conroy Dorsey. The Conroys came to this area in 1818. The Moons came in 1840. A church known as the Salem M. E. Church was erected in the center of section 4, Green Twp. at the site of the cemetery. It was a hewed log structure and served until 1840 when the members affiliated themselves with the Methodist Protestant church organization. The church was torn down in 1885 and was never rebuilt. Among the early members were John Dorsey and wife, Silas Dorsey and wife, David Larue and wife, and Mrs. Jemima Conroy. The Charity Chapel M. E. Church was organized in 1840 with twelve or fifteen members, with Silas Dorsey as the leader of the organization. They built a frame structure on Silas Dorsey's land where they worshipped until 1865. They then disbanded and affiliated themselves with the Charity Chapel Christian Church. The present chapel was erected in 1878 and remodeled several times later.

Dowden

Approximately three quarters of a mile from the McPherson Indian Reservation, whose lines are defined by the famed Greenville Treaty line on the south, S.R. 65 on the west, a county road on the east, and a short road one mile long forming its northern boundary, while the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton RR passes through the center.

Dunkard

People buried in this cemetery are the earliest pioneers of Perry Township, Shelby Co., Ohio. The Peppers all came from Germany, their markers being inscribed in German. They were prominent in mercantile life in the early history of Pasco, and on coming to the United States probably had their names changed which formerly was Pfeffer. A Rev. Joseph Garner is buried here and it is presumed he was a former pastor of the Dunkard Church that once stood on the opposite side of the county road that passes the cemetery. The Vespers, natives of Germany, have their epitaphs inscribed in German.

Emmanuel Lutheran (Montra)

Most of the older markers inscribed in German. Cemetery in good condition and is used by the Lutheran Church of the Montra community for interments. Milton Korn died of injuries sustained in a plane crash. He with his brother Edward were the earliest pioneers in aviation in this section of the State and superseded only by the Wright brothers. Edward Korn was the first to fly a mail plane from St. Louis to Chicago.

Furrow

Although there are only four markers on this plat, it is related that an officer who fell in the raid of George Rogers Clark on Pierre Loramie's store in 1782 is buried at the southeast corner of the plat and the daughter of one Captain Butler, who was commandant of Anthony Wayne's Fort Loramie in the War of 1812. James G. Furrow was a son of one James Furrow, who history relates was a young lad at the time Pierre Loramie, a Jesuit priest had a store and mission where the Arkenberg home now stands on the bank of Loramie Creek. The elder Furrow stated in his last will and testament he wished to be buried by the side of the high officer who fell in the raid on Loramie's store. The writer in an interview with Ferdinand Arkenberg May 2nd 1937 took the opportunity of inspecting the relics which the Arkenbergs have in their possession, which they have found in a gravel pit on their farm. Cannonballs, ranging in size from a baseball to bowling ball, some hollow and others filled with powder and shrapnel, were plowed up at different times. Pieces of cannonballs are also in their possession, indicating that they were of the shrapnel variety, bursting when they struck a hard object. Spanish coins bearing the date 1780 with the image of Carolus III, from which the design of our present dollar was copied, and Spanish half dollars, then called "Half Joes," bearing the dates of 1777 and 1778; a small cross, copper, with wood inlay perhaps part of rosary beads; brass buttons from military uniforms, carrying the eagle design. Other coins included a one half cent denomination of U. S. money of 1794 and a one cent coin of 1838.

This perhaps is the most historic spot of all Shelby County, for here was enacted many a stirring drama in the winning of the Northwest. In 1769 a French Jesuit missionary named Pierre Loramie established a store and mission on the site now occupied by the Arkenberg farm house. In 1782 the place was destroyed by Gen. George Rogers Clark when he with 1500 Kentuckians raided the fort in the Fall of that year. In 1794 General Anthony Wayne rebuilt the fort and called it Fort Loramie in honor of Pierre Loramie, at the same time changing the name of Pickawillany Stream to Loramie's Creek. In 1819 the fort, evacuated by the government, was sold to James Furrow, the elder, who was a young lad at the time Pierre Loramie had charge of the store. Furrow dismantled the larger buildings of the fort and converted the place into a hostelry, post office and store. He also acquired 450 acres of government land in the vicinity. In 1852 the land was sold by the Furrow Heirs to one Bernard Meyer, an early German settler, who in 1868 sold to Ferdinand Arkenberg Sr. At the elder Arkenberg's death in 1886 it came into possession of Ferdinand Arkenberg Jr., the present owner, who is now 79 years of age. A large boulder at the northeast corner of the Arkenberg home marks a corner of the old fort. A bronze marker directly east of the site on the east side of S.R. 66, appropriated by Congress, was stolen by vandals two years ago. The burial plat up to a few years ago was taken care of by the State.

Galley

This cemetery so called because it is situated on the original James Galley farm. It might have been larger at an earlier date and has the appearance of encroachment on it by successive owners. It is not fenced in. It appears on older maps of the county.

Glen

Beautiful cemetery, laid out and platted by the late Jonathan Counts in 1876. This cemetery has the distinction of being one of two village owned cemeteries in the State. First official interment that of Jane Gobel, daughter of Tip Gobel in 1876.

Graceland

In Clinton Twp. we have only the cemeteries located in Sidney, namely Graceland with its protestant and Catholic sections, and the Old Catholic and Township plat in East Sidney. Calvary Cemetery in east Sidney was abandoned in 1921 and bodies reinterred in the Catholic section in Graceland and the lot converted into an athletic field. However, an old plat lies just across the road, which was part of a piece of land to be devoted to a church, seminary and burial plat when Daniel Dingman, Sr. platted Dingmansburg in 1816. One half of the plat was occupied by the first Catholic Cemetery and the other half was used as a township cemetery. There is no record of any church ever having been built there. The old Starrett Cemetery at the forks of Main and Miami Aves. was moved to Graceland in 1909 and the Presbyterian Cemetery was moved to Graceland in 1912 to make room for the present Sidney High School. The people of both these cemeteries were reinterred in the Pioneer's section of Graceland and represent the earliest Sidney pioneers.

Protestant Section of Graceland:

Chas. Starrett, the founder of Sidney died 2-28-29. His body was transferred from the old Presbyterian Graveyard.
Robert Dinsmore died 8-19-1875. Dinsmore Twp, Shelby County was named after him.
Rev. P. A. Ogden, a pioneer of Port Jefferson, Salem Twp. died Aug. 23rd, 1876.
John L. Ogden died 5-23-1881, age 66. He was one of the first storekeepers of Port Jefferson Village.
Washington Medaris died 1883, transferred from Medaris Cem., Perry Twp.
Jeremiah Carey, an architect and builder, died 3-16-1885.
James C. Dryden, Sheriff of Shelby Co. in 1855, and who hung the notorious Negro Artis in Feb. 1855, for the murder of his daughter. He died 4-30-1886.
David Bulle was one of the early Methodist ministers of Sidney. He died 2-9-1887.
A. J. Robertson was one of the founders of the Peoples Savings and Loan Assoc. of Sidney, died 1-3-1891.
D. V. Dingman, prominent in the organization of East Sidney, died 10-4-1891.
D. W. Pampell, a county surveyor of 1872, came to his death by an act of courtesy in assisting a lady to get on a Big Four train, but fell under the wheels and was killed, 3-4-1892.
G. G. Haslup, a pioneer in the steel scraper industry, died 6-11-1898, age 85.
Park Beeman, died 4-4-1899, age 88.
Benjamin Slusser, the father of the steel scraper industry in Sidney, died 9-12-1899, age 71.
George W. Hendershott died 7-28-1910, age 79. He was a harnessmaker by trade and, when an infant in 1831, was kidnapped by an Indian squaw.
Joel Frankenberger, Sidney's first mayor and one of the founders of Port Jefferson, transferred from Presbyterian Cemetery in 1911, date of decease and age unknown.
A. T. Bascom, father of the newspaper folder industry in Sidney, died 6-10-1911, age 77.
A. B. C. Hitchcock, author of Hitchcock's History of Shelby County, died 12-28-1912, age 74.
Julia A. Lamb, donated the ground for the present Sidney High School stadium and playground and which today is known as the Julia Lamb field. She died 1-31-1916, age 92 years.
W. H. C. Goode, one of the pioneer steel scraper manufacturers of Sidney, 4-18-1923, age 80 yrs.

Thos. Shaw, born Oct. 15th, 1753, near Belfast, Ireland, served as a private in Col. Watt's Pennsylvania Reg't, and served in the Battle of Crooked Billet. He was taken prisoner at the Siege of Charleston and was later paroled. He later re-enlisted and took part in the Battle of Ramsey's Mills. He was a resident of Bourbon, Kentucky in 1785 and came to Shelby Co. in 1833. Slab and marker on grave. Body disinterred from Presbyterian Cemetery in 1911 and buried in Graceland.

Catholic Section of Graceland:

George Schneider was an early designer and builder and is credited with having built most of the buildings about Sidney's Public Square.
Joseph Altenbach and son Frank were the builders and designers of Holy Angels Church, St. John's Lutheran Church and St. Paul's Ev. Luth. Church. Michael Schmitt, Mr. Altenbach's son-in-law, was associated with them.
Magnificent statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary on the Peter Goffena lot. Sculptured from pure Italian marble, it stands 18 ft. high.
John Heiser was the pioneer plow manufacturer of Sidney.
Fred Salm was the pioneer furniture dealer and undertaker, entering that business in Sidney in 1866.
Benjamin P. Wagner, one of four brothers associated with the Wagner Manufacturing Co., established the Wagner Park Nurseries. He was also prominent in sub-division development.
J. Bernard Trimpe, twice elected County Treasurer, was one of the last canal boat skippers on the Miami and Erie Canal, plying the route between Cincinnati and Toledo.

Hines

Only one marker visible in fence corner. This lone marker suggests a family plot, and this was evidently the only burial. Old residents of the McCartyville community do not recall that a larger plat existed. There are no evidences of mounds, and this marker lies flat on the ground in a fence corner, on the south side of the road.

Hodge

The Glick, Hogan, Herring, Stewart and Watkins families early pioneers of the Maplewood area. Cemetery on the Logan County-Shelby County line.

Houston

Harvey Houston, the founder of Houston, is one of the earliest pioneers of Houston. The village was surveyed and platted May 4, 1838. He was an inn-keeper. The Mills, Zemer, Skillen, Flinn and Chronaberry families were among the earliest pioneers of this vicinity. The Chronaberrys were natives of Limerick County, Ireland.

Howell

The early pioneers of this part of Jackson Twp. were the Wales family, who came in 1838. Brooks Akers came in 1840 and Jefferson Baker came in 1845. Practically all who are buried in this cemetery were all of English descent, although Montra is a typically German community. These people may be considered the earliest pioneers of this part of Jackson Twp. The other cemetery is maintained by the Lutheran Church of Montra, and all of German descent are buried there. Timothy Wale, soldier of the Revolutionary War is buried here. Although his grave is unmarked, except by a small headstone, on which there is no lettering, the customary Revolutionary War Emblem with the lettering A.S.R. is placed at the head of the grave. Wale came to Shelby County and Jackson Twp. in 1835. Records of the 6th Census show he was living in Jackson Twp. in 1840.

Immaculate Conception

The present Immaculate Conception Church was built in 1868. Names most prominent in this cemetery are those of the Hemmert, Sitzmann, Koenig, Gutman, Nuss, Stolle, Monger, Huber, Schemmel, Roth, Becher and Beiersdorfer families.

Indian Creek

Cemetery received its name from creek called Indian Creek, which flows on the south side of same. Legend has it that the Indians in this locality were friendly to the whites and intermarriage was quite common. Indian facial characteristics being noted in many of the older residents of Pemberton. The Burditt, Kiser, Forsythe, Peck, Stephenson and Line families were pioneer settlers in Perry Twp. The Wilkinson family were engaged in the milling business in Pemberton. William Staley died of injuries in the Civil War August 21, 1861. The first M. E. Society was organized at the home of Rev. Booth Burditt by the Rev. Sims. Others in the class included Marcus Peck and wife, and Geo. Pool, who later became a minister. These people are buried here, although the grave of Peck is unmarked.

Lemoine (Black)

A German Reformed Church is believed to have stood at this site in the early "seventies". This cemetery was the site of a town called Messina that was laid out March 15, 1833 for David and Cynthia Houston. It was laid in fractional acres. It never developed, however, and the cemetery itself lies partway on the Voisard and Lemoine farms. Jacob Black came to section 13 in 1818, Jacob Everly in 1820, James Harvey in 1823, Christian Mader in 1840, Henry Day in 1837.

Lenox

The plat overlooks Plum Creek. An interesting feature is that quite a few markers are to be found in the cemetery but only seven monuments are standing. The rest are lying in confusion about the plat, which is fenced in.

Marshall (No. 1)

This particular plat is supposed to be a family burying place, the Marshalls and their relatives occupying the same. In very poor condition. A. Logan Marshall and his wife are buried here. He served as County Recorder in the years 1868-1872. They came to Washington Township in 1848.

Marshall (No. 2)

Samuel Marshall was born in Ireland in 1775. He was a member of the Legislature and served as one of the first associate judges of Shelby County, holding that position a number of years. He was one of the first contractors for the old Piqua and Fort Defiance mail route and the route from Piqua to Bellefontaine. William Marshall, a son of Judge Marshall, was a railroad contractor when the Bellefontaine-Indiana line was built through Shelby County in 1854. He later engaged in stock raising. Moses E. Baker was a justice of the peace of the now defunct village of Rumley in Van Buren Twp.

McLean Township-Pioneer

This cemetery lies in the northeast corner of the Gregor Fleckenstein farm which lies directly south of the Arkenburg place, the site of Pierre Loramie's mission and later the site of Anthony Wayne's fort of 1794. Christian and William Prillaman were co-founders of Loramies, Dec. 22nd 1837.

McClure

No record of a church on this plat. A little community still known as Ringworm at the intersection of S.R. 54 (now 29) and S.R. 706, once flourished and boasted of a general store and several houses. About one and one-half miles to the west on S.R. 706, formerly known as the Sherman Road, was another community called Uno. A red schoolhouse marks the site of Uno.

Medaris

This cemetery, a private one, seems to contain many of the Line family, although only the one family of Washington Medaris is buried there. The plat, situated in the northeast corner of section 35, Perry Twp, originally belonged to the Medaris family. Joseph Line, Revolutionary War Hero, buried in this cemetery. Although the grave is unmarked, the D.A.R. records of Shelby County, say he died in 1841. He was one of three brothers, all of whom fought in the Revolutionary War. Joseph Line was present at Braddock's defeat near DuQuesne. The Lines came to Shelby County in 1835. George Line, a son of John Line, one of the three brothers who fought in the Revolutionary War, was a soldier in the Civil War and died at Bermuda Aug. 7, 1864, at the age of 25 yrs. Martin Line, a brother of George, entered the Union Army in 1863, served to the close of the war, and was with Sherman on his famous "March to the Sea." He returned home and died of consumption April 30, 1866, age 23 yrs.

Mellinger (Beechwood)

This cemetery is part of the present M. E. United Brethren Cemetery (Beechwood) of Lockington and is well taken care of, one of the very few in the county to receive proper attention. Notable personages were the Mellingers after whom this part of the cemetery was named. The Mellingers, of whom there were three brothers, came to Washington Township, then called Grayson Twp., in 1806, when it was still a part of Miami County.

Mills

This cemetery in bad condition, many slabs lying flat on the ground. Harman Meyers, one of the founders of Newport, is buried here. He also founded basinburg, a now defunct village, in 1839. He came to this region in 1824. William and John Miller came in 1824, William Mills in 1825, George Hale in 1830. The bodies of Marcus and N. R. Mills were transferred to the Houston cemetery about 1900.

New Friedens Gemeinde

Church known as Friedens Gemeinde Congregation built in 1888, abandoned in 1910. Frame structure 30 x 40 now used as a tool house. Interments in this area are now being made in the Schwaberow Cemetery near Kettlerville and the Pilgerruhe Cemetery at New Knoxville. Peculiarity about the cemetery is there seems to be no regular family plats. Succeeding graves being made in regular order as to years.

New Hope

Only two burials in this plat. Church has stood here for many years and is known as the New Hope United Brethren Church.

New Loramie Valley

Adam E. Blakeley was for many years Postmaster of Botkins and published the "Botkins Herald" till his death in 1912.

New Oran (Chrisman)

Township cemetery laid out about 1892 replacing the Old Christian Cemetery in Oran. George Short was born in Virginia and came with his father, Richard Short, to Shelby County in 1833. J. C. Swob was born in Darke County, Ohio. Moved to Shelby County in 1863, locating at Oran. Here he operated a butcher shop and served the community for many miles around, delivering meat with a horse and light wagon.

New St. Michael's

A feature of this cemetery is the handsome entrance designed and built by Freytag Brothers of Fort Loramie. It is built of stone, Italian-Romanesque style.

Newport

This cemetery not quite as old as others in this vicinity. Twenty civil war veterans are buried in this cemetery. Two tree trunks manufactured from cement, set side by side, epitaphs traced in cement. Branches cut off at various points representing members of family who have died, their initials being traced on face of cut-off portion, and designated whether son, daughter or infant. Parents' names on face of trunk. They are six feet high and approximately one foot in diameter. Jos. Wagler, one of the first manufacturers of native brick in this vicinity, resided in Basinburg, an extinct village, one mile north of this vicinity.

Digitized by Andy Niekamp ~ andyniekamp@gmail.com ~ www.andyniekamp.com

Old Friedens Gemeinde

Although only two markers are visible here, and according to information received at Kettlerville, bodies were disinterred and removed to the Friedens Gemeinde Cemetery on the Botkins Pike, a description of which appears elsewhere in this series. A German Evangelical church formerly stood on the plat and which was later torn down and rebuilt on the present plat on the Botkins Pike.

Old Loramie Valley

This cemetery, like many others, in unkempt condition. Lies in northwest corner of section nine, Dinsmore Twp. Thos. Curts, Revolutionary War Soldier died July 24th, 1858, aged 67 years. Richard Botkins was the founder of Botkins village, at that time called Botkinsville.

Old Pioneer - Plattsville

Cemetery unkempt, full of groundhog holes, so bad that the villagers have taken to trapping them. Samuel Woodward, Revolutionary War Soldier buried in this cemetery.

Old St. Michael's

McLean Township and Fort Loramie's earliest German pioneers are represented in this cemetery. Rev. Father William V. Bigot, 1838-1908, buried here, was pastor of St. Michael's Congregation from 1874 to 1903 and the present magnificent Gothic Church was built under his pastorate in 1883. Father Bigot was an able historian and portrayed the events of the historic mission of Pierre Loramie 1762-1782 and the founding of Wayne fort in 1794 in his book "The Annals of St. Michaels Parish." William J. Sherman surveyed the Piqua-St. Marys Road in 1871, now S.R. 66. He served two terms as County Surveyor. His father, Henry Sherman, settled in southeastern McLean Twp. in 1835.

Oran Christian

Samuel Penrod, the first ordained minister in the Oran Christian Church, and his wife Rachel are buried here.

Orange Chapel

This cemetery seems to be in fair condition. The Bulle Family and their unique markers seem to predominate here, with a fair sprinkling of the Rhodehamels and Prudens.

Pearl

The first authentic burial after the cemetery was platted in 1893 was that of Jennie P. Bretches who died June 16th, 1893. Others were buried earlier and others transferred from the old St. James (Jacob ?) Lutheran Cemetery one-quarter mile north. Swanders, Fey, Forrar families pioneer residents of Swanders, a little community one mile west of this cemetery. Schiffs, Billings, Hagelbergers, Boyers, Altermatts, Kahs, early residents of Anna village.

Pepper

Cemetery in very bad condition and has the appearance of being encroached on by a gravel pit, which is abandoned. It is probable the bodies were transferred to the Pasco cemetery (Cedar Point). The old Dunkard Cemetery is directly across the road from the Pepper Cemetery.

Pioneer (Salem Twp.)

In the extreme western part of the cemetery is an odd burial plot approximately 15' x 10'. It is believed to have been the last resting place of the Rice family. The plat is surrounded by wrought iron fence, set in stone columns three feet high by 6" square. Iron is singularly free from rust and probably was erected about 1833. John Ogden who is buried here was the second storekeeper of Port Jefferson. He succeeded A. K. Hathaway who is buried in the Roberts Cemetery east of Port Jefferson. George Kemp was the first blacksmith of Port Jefferson. Rev. John Fry, a minister of the Miami Christian Church, died Jan. 20th, 1870. Jane Guerin was the first wife of Vincent Guerin, the first Probate Judge of Shelby County about 1849. Samuel Rice, pioneer of Port Jefferson, on travelling from Buffalo, N. Y., undecided where to settle, journeyed to Chicago but finding that village too swampy, decided to settle in Port Jefferson because it was at the head of navigation, i.e. the Canal Feeder of the Miami and Erie Canal was built in Port Jefferson, at the time of Rice's arrival there.

Plattsville

A number of Civil War Veterans buried here.

Presbyterian - see Graceland

Redman

The Redmans were early colored settlers of Rumley, the once prosperous colored village which will celebrate its centennial at the annual Emancipation Day homecoming the last Sunday in August. John Robertson, it is said, was of Negro and Indian stock and worked as a stone cutter on the Shelby County Court House at the time of its erection in 1883. A colored Baptist Church was located on the Van Buren-Dinsmore Twp. line road, about one-half mile east of the cemetery, which lies in Van Buren Twp. This cemetery is practically a thicket, a jungle would probably be the best explanation. Fortunate in finding five markers, although only twelve persons are buried there, according to residents of that area.

Roberts

The most notable personage buried here is Albert Kirk Hathaway, one of the founders of Port Jefferson and the first storekeeper and justice of peace of that village. A remarkable feature of this cemetery are the picket fences that enclose the Taylor and Roberts family burial plots. There is an entire absence of rust, the points of the pickets being as sharp as the day they were installed. Uncommon to most cemeteries are the placing of large slabs over some of the graves, serving both as a protection and monument.

Sacred Heart

The first church and only church was built in McCartyville in 1888. This locality was settled by the Irish in 1872. While predominately Irish in the early days, this area is populated almost entirely by those of German descent. The cemetery is still being used for interments from the Sacred Heart Church.

Schwaberow

Earliest markers recorded in German, while those of a later period are written in English. Cemetery at present used for interments from the German Ev. Lutheran Church of Kettlerville. Burials from this area are also made in the Pilgerruhe (Pilgrim's Rest) Cemetery at New Knoxville and the Lock Two Cemetery in Auglaize County. A large frame chapel, 25' x 40' stands unused in the rear of this cemetery, except for storage of tools.

Seventh Day Baptist

The Seventh Day Baptists organized their society at the home of Solomon Sayres Sept. 3rd, 1840. The society continues to worship in Jackson Center at the present time. John Forsythe and Jesse M. Babcock were two of the six founders of Jackson Center May 4th, 1835. John Forsythe Jr. died in the service of his country 1-15-1862 at the age of 20. The Davises operated the first grist mill in Jackson Township. It was known as the Davis Horse-Mill. The Babcocks operated the first steam flouring mill in Jackson Center in 1849. James Davis was a veteran of the War of 1812. Jeptha Davis settled in Jackson Twp. in 1837 and William Babcock in 1837.

St. Jacob Lutheran (Swanders)

The Greenville Treaty Line marks the northern boundary of this cemetery, which was the churchyard of a German Lutheran Church. Like many others, this cemetery in a badly run down condition. Enclosed burial plots and a better grade of monuments indicate a rich farming community of earlier days. Practically all names and epitaphs written in German. Ewalt Fey was an early wagon manufacturer of Swander Crossing.

St. Jacobs Lutheran

St. Jacobs Evangelical Lutheran Church was organized in 1851. Among the original members are the Zorn, Metz, Kemper, Elsass, Bonnoront, Kies and Isemann families. In the same year a hewed log structure was erected and in 1877 a brick building was put up which served as a meeting house till 1916 when the present larger brick building was erected.

St. Lawrence

St. Lawrence Roman Catholic Church was organized in 1856 and service was held in an old school house when a brick church 40 x 50 was erected in 1858. A two story brick schoolhouse was erected in 1878.

St. Patrick

Cemetery being used for interments from St. Patrick's Church. The first log church was built here in 1848 and was replaced by a frame church in 1873, which gave way to the magnificent brick edifice in 1914. The Irish settled in this vicinity in 1848 and the Germans in 1854. While the Irish predominated in the early fifties, the Germans number almost the entire population of this section of Turtle Creek Twp. About five families of Irish descent are represented in the present St. Patrick's congregation. All inscriptions on the markers of those of German descent are done in German characters.

Sts. Peter and Paul

Eugene Pilliod, buried here, was born in France in 1826 and was just a few months old when he came to Shelby County. He was widely known for his many labor saving inventions. He invented and marketed the first threshing machine sold in Shelby County. He died on Armistice Day 1918. The old house in which he lived and conducted a store is still standing on the south bank of the Miami and Erie Canal.

St. Remy

This particular locality was settled entirely by French Roman Catholics. The earliest settler to this area was Tibone Didier in 1837. Amos Pepiot came in 1838. Later arrivals were John B. Mallott in 1840, Louis Phillip in 1853 and Ferial DeBrosse in 1857. St. Remigius, more commonly known as St. Remy, was built in 1891. The first church was built of logs in 1838 and was one of the four missions served by the Rev. Father Navarron. A frame church was built in 1867. To the west of the church is a little log hut, a replica of the first church. It was built by Felix Francis in 1917 to commemorate the Golden Jubilee of the parish. The cemetery is still in use.

Staley

Cemetery is located on high summit overlooking the Great Miami River and is not marked on old county maps. This cemetery in bad condition, many slabs are lying flat. The Kirtlands and Harshbargers were early settlers in this vicinity, coming here in 1814. The Talbotts came in 1818 and settled in the extreme southwestern part of Salem Twp. They owned all the land in the vicinity of the Wells Bridge. The first crossing of the Wells or Two Mile Bridge was known in 1816 as "Rodham Talbott's Ford." The Staleys predominate in this cemetery, the family having a large plat surrounded by a wrought iron fence. Orrin Staley and Rodger Staley, descendants, reside in the immediate vicinity. A daughter of Daniel V. Dingman, the founder of Dingmansburg in 1816, is buried here.

Stewart

The Clark family were Negroes. Their complexion was lighter than the average Negro, some of the children having light hair and some straight black hair. Mrs. Lee Steenrod attended school with some of the children. The Steenrods live in the neighborhood of this cemetery. The Wrights and Wilsons were early settlers of this area. The Clark family were believed to have resided in New Bern, a small canal village settled mostly by Negroes. Samuel Wright, buried here, was the one-time operator of the New Bern Elevator. All that remains of New Bern is an old store building, lately occupied by the sons of Old "Doc" Lee, dec'd., a Negro "Quack Doctor" and believed by some to be a former slave. The site of New Bern is three quarters of a mile southwest of the cemetery site. Many of the Negro settlers of New Bern are believed to have been buried here, although their graves are unmarked and this is the nearest cemetery to the New Bern locality.

Sturm (Green Twp.)

This is one of the worst cemeteries in the county, full of ground hog holes, weeds and tall briars making progress very difficult. It is very evident this cemetery has not had any care in the last ten or fifteen years. There are quite a few Civil War Veterans buried here. The Methodist Episcopal society was organized in 1820 at the house of Ezekial Sargeant. The society was merged with the Christian Church of New Palestine (Tawawa) in 1837. Ezekiel Sargeant and wife came to Green Township in 1816. Elias Barbee came in 1834. John Sarver in 1838. Nicholas Kiser in 1840 and the Hume family came in 1841.

Sturm (Perry Twp.)

Cemetery in very bad condition. More people interred there. Impossible to get to markers owing to large bales of rusted fence being dumped in the cemetery atop the graves. George Sturm, after whom the cemetery is named, came to Green Twp. in 1814 and in 1832 moved to Perry Township. He died about 1881. He was born in Virginia in 1757. His wife is buried in the above cemetery, while his body is at rest in Glenn Cemetery at Port Jefferson.

Tawawa U. B.

Cemetery, surrounded partly by an iron picket fence, is in fair state of preservation. It is small and seemingly was intended for a family plot. A frame church once stood directly in front of this burial plot. Erected in 1863, it was known as the Tawawa U. B. Church and was torn down about 1900, the remains of the stone foundation still being outlined. The Society was founded at the home of Judge David Henry in 1816. James Marrs was the fifth son of William Marrs, the family coming to Perry Twp. in 1816. The Kiser and Reid families were early settlers in this vicinity, the Kisers tracing their ancestry back to the Mayflower. Richard Henry was the oldest son of Judge David Henry, the earliest pioneer of Perry Township, his family coming there in 1814. Judge Henry was appointed by the court to direct the sale and survey of lots for the newly platted village of Sidney in 1820. The father is probably buried in the family plot in this cemetery although the grave is unmarked. Judge Henry died March 29, 1834. The first births in Perry Township, twins, were born to Judge and Mrs. Henry in 1816.

Toland

Richard Dill served his country in the War of 1812. Rev. Amos Lambert was a Lutheran Minister of the former St. James (Jacob ?) Reformed Church south of Anna. Joseph Lambert, a son of the above, died in the service of his country in the Civil War.

Walkup

This cemetery was formerly known as the Roop Cemetery and still is, but more frequently the term Walkup is used. It is one of three cemeteries in Shelby County located on the Greenville Treaty Line. Cornelius Wagler, son of Christian Wagler, was a brick and tile manufacturer. Capt. Milton Kemper came to his death from gangrene resulting from a bullet wound sustained in a conflict with robbers in the vicinity of Loramies (Fort Loramie). He was village marshall at the time. Edward Brown, son of D. K. Brown, was a prominent nursery and tree man. This cemetery is one mile distant from the Shelby-Darke County line. People buried here are all of the German Reformed faith and represent the early settlement of western McLean Twp. It is thought this cemetery was destined to be a family plat, namely that of the Walkups, who were of Irish extraction; their descendants are living in Fort Loramie and Sidney. Interments from the German Reformed Church at Fort Loramie, McLean Township are still being made here. Tobias Roop was noted for miles around for his obesity. He weighed 400 pounds and made his home in the cellar of his house. Unable to ride in a buggy, he made his necessary trips in a spring wagon, ascending to the seat with a short ladder. He is reported to have eaten as high as three chickens at one sitting. At his death in 1879 a special coffin was built and the side of the house had to be removed to facilitate removal.

Ward

Cemetery lies in quarter section of the Ward farm. This quarter section is bounded on all four sides by roads.

Wesley Chapel (Franklin Twp.)

The Ailes, Fridley and Young families were pioneer settlers in section 36 of Franklin Twp.

Wesley Chapel (Orange Twp.)

Here lie buried the Berrys, Cannons, Furrows and Valentines who settled here in 1807. A brick church, known as the Wesley Chapel M. E. Church, stood in the southwest corner of the plat, but for some unknown reason was torn down several years ago.

Wright

Cemetery overlooks the picturesque Loramie River and valley. A little to the southwest stands the old homestead of Peter Wright who is buried here. Built in 1854 of brick, early colonial style, it has the year 1854 in bold numerals across the front of the house, which is on the south side of the road. About one-quarter mile to the west is the little hamlet of Dawson, once a thriving canal town and grain center. It was known as Speers Landing in 1834 and in the 70's as Patrick's Station, and in the 80's getting the present name. Samuel McClure was the first settler of this community coming here in 1811. He is buried here although his grave is unmarked. The Skillens came in 1817. The Richardsons came in 1816. F. R. Griffis in 1839, and Gates came in 1824. Stephen Blanchard came to this section in 1832 from Andover, Mass. He operated the first tan yard in Cynthian Twp. and was succeeded by Sam Wright. A "New Lights" Church was established on the site of this graveyard in 1833 which has long since been torn down. This church was torn down in 1852 and a new church built in Mount Jefferson the same year. Headstone of Abigail McClure, app. 1-1/2 foot high x 7' across and 2' thick, fashioned roughly out of a slab of native limestone - evidently by one of family, letters and figures crudely cut, 1822 at top with name Abigail Mc-, with the Clure omitted.

Note: Mr. Sherman did not record a date on his material; however, to the best of our knowledge, his research and writing were done during the 1930's.

McKinney (Miami County)

Located on Lockington-Piqua Road about one and one-half miles south of the Shelby County-Miami County line in Section 32, Springcreek Township of Miami County. Although this cemetery is not in Shelby County, it is included in this record because of some confusion with the McKinney Cemetery in Turtle Creek Township of Shelby County and the Rasor Cemetery just south of Lockington. Reportedly, land for the cemetery and a Methodist Church, which once stood here, was donated by the Scudder family.

CORRECTIONS AND ADDITIONS

Friedens Gemeinde (called New Friedens Gemeinde in court house and other records)

The following five names were inadvertently omitted from the list of burials on page no. 520:

Harlamert, George W., d June 21, 1913, 23y 7d.

Kipp, Sophia Christina, wife of William, b May 22, 1853, d Mar 10, 1914, 60y 9m 18d.

Vordermark, Elisabeth G., b 25 Sept 1847, d 5 April 1914, 67y 6m 11d.

Kuck, Wilhlem, 1848 - 1915.

Kipp, William F., b Nov 17, 1859, d Mar 12, 1947.

Records of the Reformed Friedens Gemeinde Church show the following additional burials (no tombstones):

Steineker, Sarah, d 2 July 1886, 40y 10m 2d.

Vordermark, Heinrich Benjamin, d 9 Mar 1885, 23d.

Niemeier, Heinrich (no data).
(Court house records show that Henry Niemeyer died Dec 24, 1888, 64y 6m 20d. Born in Germany)

Brakriede, Caroline (no data).

Kuck, Christina A. E., nee Elshowe, b 31 Aug 1846 at Ladbergen, Teklenberg (Germany), d 8 Oct 1909.

Kuck, Elizabeth, nee Stork, b Apr 7, 1841 at Ladbergen, Teklenberg (Germany), d Nov 27, 1911.

Grody, Infant of Frank and Sophia, b & d 1916.

The Reformed Friedens Gemeinde Church property and building were purchased Nov. 10, 1883 from the Muddy Creek M. E. Church of Van Buren Township. Services were held here from late 1883 until 1912. The building has long since been removed. Records of this church are stored at the First Evangelical and Reformed Church of New Knoxville, Ohio. Adjacent property for the cemetery was purchased Nov. 4, 1885.

Johnson (called Old Friedens Gemeinde in court house and other records)

This small cemetery has erroneously been referred to as the Old Friedens Gemeinde. It should correctly be called the Johnson Cemetery as it was a family plot on what was once the Robert Johnson farm and contains the remains of Johnson family members. The plot, 1/2 acre in size, is situated in the extreme southeast corner of Section 3 in Van Buren Township, in the northwest corner of the intersection of Lock-Two and Kettlersville-Botkins Road. Only two tombstones remain visible, which are lying flat on the ground.

Johnson, Lydia M., wife of Robert, d Feb 20, 1874, 32y 1m 8d.

Frank, Elizabeth J., wife of George, d June 27, 1870, 24y 9m 1d.

The above information on the Friedens Gemeinde & Johnson Cemeteries was obtained through the kind assistance of Mr. Louis F. Kipp of New Knoxville, Ohio. Mr. Kipp was a trustee of Van Buren Township for 17 years during the period 1940 - 1961 and lived here most of his life.
