INTRODUCTION

The Mercer County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society presents the final volume of cemetery inscriptions in Mercer County. This volume contains the inscriptions of Granville and Marion Townships.

We found some stones very difficult to read because of age and weather deterioration. However, our biggest problem was deciphering the old German script. It was difficult to distinguish a capital I and J. Also, U and V, E and B, L and S, and even T and F are confusing, plus capital letters H, K, and R can look alike. The long s (ſ) appeared on some stones as it was used as a double s.

Many surnames were found with various spellings, such as Goettemoller, Gottemoeller, Gottemoler, Gottermoller. Another example is Stachler, Staghler, Staughler, and Staugler. Some were almost impossible to pronounce. Please check every possible spelling of the surname you are researching.

As when doing any research, do not rely completely on this index. If you feel you have an ancestor in a particular cemetery, we suggest you read the entire reading in the book.

We hope this book will be a useful tool in your endeavor in locating those missing ancestors.

GILBERT CEMETERY

(Granville Twp.)

GILBERT Cemetery (aka ROSE HILL) was located in Sec. 33, Granville Twp. on Hemmelgarn Rd., south of Watkins Rd. and north of the Mercer-Darke Co. Rd.

David Winteroad owned this land at one time and sold it to United Brethren Church of Christ of Rose Hill in Darke Co., OH for $5.00. Book 10, page 239 in the Recorders Office, mentions a graveyard on Mar. 27, 1866. Also, in Book 81, page 226, Nov. 8, 1902 there is mention of the graveyard again by Theodore Hemmelgarn to Trustees of UB Church. No evidence of the cemetery remains on this land now owned by Hemmelgarns.

On page 63 of HISTORY OF MERCER COUNTY by Bronsart Gilberg, he mentions that the Asiatic Cholera hit Granville Twp. and the number of deaths remain unknown. He visited a weed-tangled patch in the middle of a field on the Hemmelgarn farm on Hemmelgarn Rd. and scraped and dug away debris and sod, finding ten markers lying flat. Other markers were possibly there, but buried deeper or inaccessible in the brush. Date on one stone was 1854, and names on three could be read as GILBERT. We believe Mr. Gilberg wrote this history cal957. Unfortunately, he did not record any other data.

Dr. Carl C. Feldhake was looking for this cemetery around 1974 and he found these four remaining stones which he recorded:

DAVIS: Raghil w/o John (died 1862)
GILBERT: E. (died Oct 4, 1849) 12 year
GILBERT: Thomas (died May 29, 1819) 14 year
GRARY: John s/o M. J. (died June 26, 1854)

LAUBER CEMETERY

(Granville Twp.)

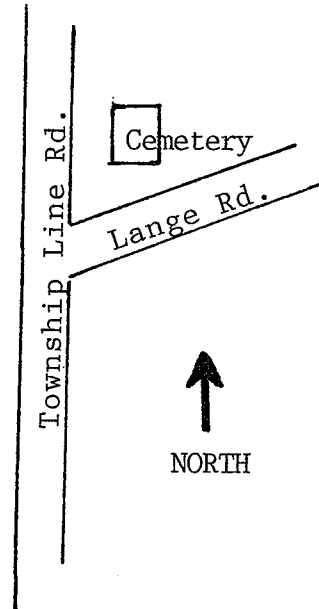

This cemetery was located in Sec. 19 in Granville Twp. near the corner of Lange Rd. (formerly called Lauber Pike - 1888 Atlas) and Township Line Rd.

Original owner was Levi Huit with cemetery started cal850. No evidence of cemetery remains on this farm now owned by Wendels.

Around 1974, Dr. Carl C. Feldhake unearthed the following stones when searching for this old cemetery:

SHANNON: Thomas (died Sept 17, 1864)

GRAY: Salathiel s/o James & Elizabeth
(died Sept 9, 1851) 1-1-0

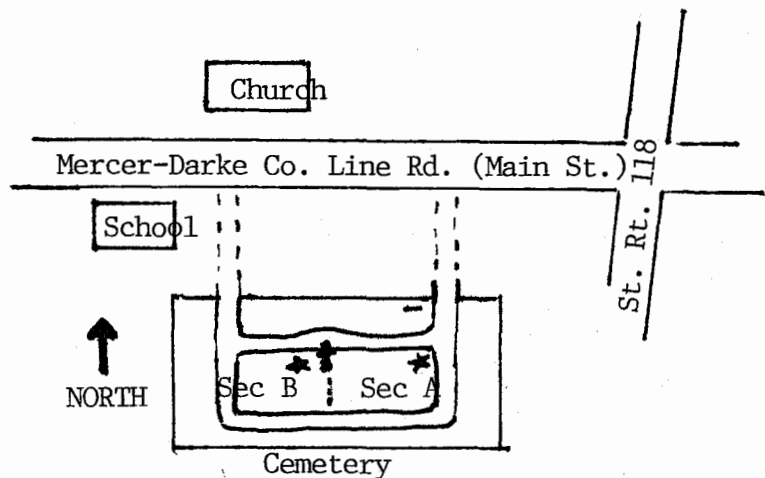

ST. BERNARD CEMETERY
(Burkettsville, OH)

Located in Burkettsville, OH, two blocks south of the Mercer-Darke Co. Line Rd. (Main St.) which runs in the middle of this town.

Cemetery is situated in Darke Co., but we included it since many of the area residents are buried here from Granville Twp.

Read in two sections with each row read E to W. See (★) where reading began.

CHICKASAW CEMETERY

(Marion Twp.)

This cemetery was located in Sec. 14, Marion Twp. at the southeast edge of Chickasaw, OH. It is marked in the 1888 Mercer Co. Atlas, but is no longer in existence, and no records have been found of burials.

INNIARD CEMETERY

(Marion Twp.)

Was located in Sec. 11, Marion Twp. just northeast of village of Chickasaw, OH. No longer in existence, and no records of burials found.

The Inniard's were a strange group of people who kept to themselves with their hexes and fetish beliefs, living on this poor land where water had to be carried from the Chickasaw Creek. The death rate of this small group was probably high.

Some had believed this to be an old Indian burial ground as they lived here at one time, but when dirt was taken from a high mound to use for a new bridge on St. Rt. 274, old walnut wooden coffins and bones were uncovered and work on the bridge was stopped. Indians did not bury in this fashion, plus they placed Indian artifacts with their bodies.

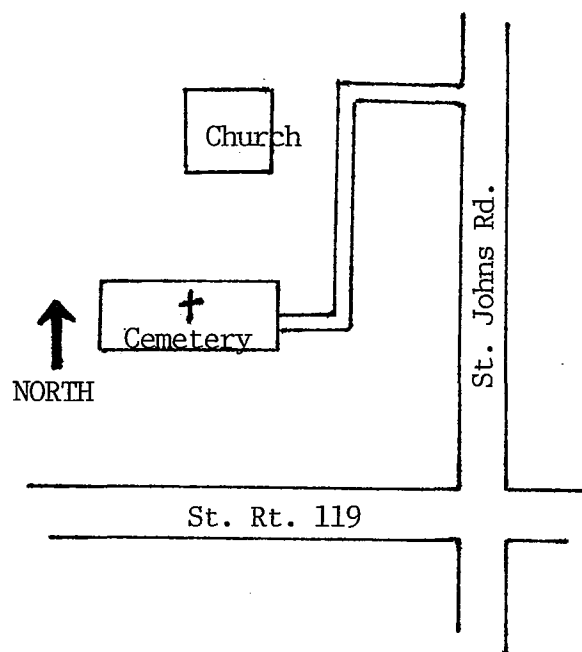

In Deed Book M, page 543 in the Recorders Office, it notes that land was set aside for a cemetery in 1848 to the Marion Twp. Trustees. The Marion Twp. Trustees had this area surveyed in 1960 when the cemetery came to be known again -- map is in the CHICKASAW HISTORY BOOK on page 20, along with the article taken from the DAILY STANDARD of July 15, 1960 and written by Bronsart Gilberg. This graveyard was still mentioned in Deed Book 7, page 433, but in Deed Book 12, page 622 (1864) no mention of this graveyard is given when it was transferred to the owner.

MARIA STEIN CONVENT CEMETERY
(Marion Twp.)

Located in Sec. 23, Marion Twp. on
St. Johns Rd. north of St. Rt. 119 at the Maria Stein Center.

This land was settled by the Sisters of the Precious Blood when they came from Switzerland in 1846 and was the site of their Motherhouse until 1923
when they moved to Dayton, OH.

The Shrine of Holy Relics and Retreat
House are also located here.

TOWNSHIP CEMETERY (BLACK CEMETERY)

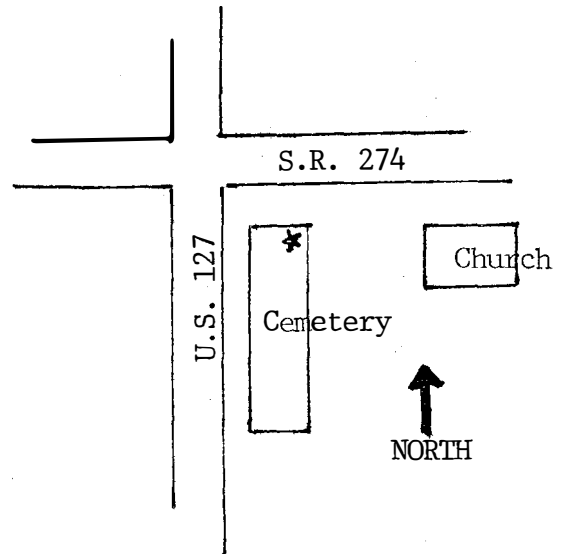

(Marion Twp.)

Located in Sec. 18, Marion Twp. at the intersection of U.S. 127 and S.R. 274 next to St. Aloysius Church and Cemetery.

Formerly known as Union Cemetery, a black cemetery originally owned by Augustus Wattles (a white man) who had established a settlement for the blacks circa 1837 at Carthagenia. An iron fence separates the cemetery from the Catholic cemetery.

Very old cemetery with many of the stones buried, broken and unreadable.
