

St. Michael's Church

Fort Loramie, Ohio

1995

FROM THE PASTOR

"Who do you say I am?" When Jesus put this question to his disciples, He was not just concerned that they knew His name. It is a probing question about His true identity, and the ultimate mission of His life. When Simon Peter responded, "You are the Christ, the Son of God," even he did not realize all that this unique identity entailed: the road of suffering and death leading to the glory of the Resurrection.

This new pictorial directory of St. Michael's Parish will not only help us put names to familiar faces; it also serves to remind us of our true identity as followers of Jesus Christ on a road filled with joys and sorrows. We are most blessed to live out our Christian calling within the community of St. Michael's, for ours is a wonderful heritage of enduring faith, generous concern for one another, and simplicity of life.

In a special way, this directory pays tribute to the memory of nearby St. Patrick's Parish, which closed in 1994. Most of the St. Patrick's parishioners are now members of St. Michael's Parish; and coupled with last year's welcoming celebration, this directory is being published in the hope that it will help to seal the bonds of faith and friendship which already exist among us.

May this new directory lead to a more united St. Michael's Parish even as it helps to answer the nagging question: "Who do people say I am?"
